Your donations change lives.

When you give to Goodwill, your donation of clothing and household items changes lives. At Goodwill we use your donations to provide job-training and employment services helping people go to work throughout our community.

At Goodwill, we turn donations into items we sell in our retail store. Items we cannot sell are recycled and kept from going to the landfill.

The revenues we earn in our stores are turned into education, training and employment services helping people go to work.

Thank you for supporting Goodwill!
