The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) applies to the processing of personal data. The Coombe Women & Infants University Hospital (CWIUH) is committed to complying with its legal obligations in this regards. The hospital collects and processes your personal data relating to you in order to support our legitimate interests in managing our business and providing services to you.

Data we collect and use:

To allow us to provide our services to you, we collect and process various categories of personal data, which may include:

- Personal details about you, such as date of birth, address, next of kin, contact details.
- Notes and reports about your health needs/results of investigations such as x-rays and laboratory tests.
- Relevant information from other health and social care professionals, your carers or relatives.

Your rights:

You have certain legal rights concerning your personal data and the manner in which we process it, which includes:

- A right to get access to a copy of your personal data.
- A right to request us to correct inaccurate information, or update incomplete information.

Disclosing data to third parties:

We will only disclose your personal data to third parties with your consent, however, the law stipulates that in certain circumstances personal data (including health information) may be disclosed, for example, in the case of infectious diseases or child protection.

Clinical Audit:

Clinical data is collected in accordance with GDPR for clinical audit purposes. Your clinical data may be used to monitor and improve our services. Your personal data will be anonymised and you will not be identifiable from these audits.

Clinical Research:

The CWIUH is a teaching hospital, we work closely with Trinity College Dublin (TCD) and University College Dublin (UCD). All research projects are approved by the CWIUH Research Ethics Committee. Your health records may be accessed for screening by authorised researchers to assess if you are suitable for participation in a research project. If your clinical data is selected for use in research your consent will be required/obtained prior to inclusion in any research.

See our website www.coombe.ie for further information contained in our Privacy Statement including how to apply to access a copy of your medical records.

I have read and understand the nature of the data collected by the CWIUH, the purposes for which the data may be used, the persons to whom data may be disclosed and my rights in relation to access to and correction of my personal data.
