Seller acknowledges that he/she is the legal owner of the firearm listed above, that the firearm is not stolen, and that the firearm is free of all encumbrances, liens, or other obligations that would hinder his/her ability to sell the firearm. Seller advises Buyer that the firearm is sold "as is" and no warranty is expressed or implied. Seller assumes no responsibility for the firearm after transfer of ownership and disclaims all responsibility for consequential and/or incidental damages or any losses arising from the use of the firearm.

If it can be shown now or in the future that the firearm was stolen prior to the date listed on this form or that the seller was not the legal owner of the firearm, Seller agrees to refund Buyer the full purchase price.

Buyer understands the firearm is sold "as is" and no warranty has been implied or given and that the firearm should be inspected by a competent gunsmith prior to using. Seller is not responsible for any damages, costs, or other liabilities incurred or caused by the use of this firearm.

Buyer certifies that he/she is not restricted or forbidden by law to own a firearm and buyer states that he/she is not restricted or forbidden by law to sell a firearm.

Buyer and Seller both agree that two identical copies of the Firearm Bill of Sale were completed and signed and that a copy was given to each party.
