Access to Medical Reports Act 1988

If agents acting on behalf of the insurer require information from your Doctor in respect of your claim you have certain rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988: -

- Your consent* is required before the insurer or anyone acting as their agent can apply for a report and you may see the report before it is supplied to the insurer or their agents, or at any time during the six months after that.
- If you disagree with the contents of the report or consider it to be misleading you may ask your Doctor to amend it. If the Doctor disagrees you may add your own written comments. The Doctor may withhold all or part of the report from you if he/she thinks that this would be in your best interests, or that of others. Alternatively, you can refuse to give your consent*.
- At no time will the report be sent to the insurer or anyone acting as their agent without your consent.

*You can refuse to give your consent however this may mean we are unable to deal with your claim

Charges made by the Doctor for providing such a report are your responsibility, as they are not covered by this policy.
