

INDEPENDENT ARTISTS PROGRAM – Criticism and Curatorial Practice

APPLICATION PACKAGE

Application Closing Dates: March 15 and October 1

The Independent Artists Program supports Saskatchewan professional artists living and working in the province as they pursue their creative work and careers. The program funds artists working independently or collaboratively, all artistic genres and forms, and a wide range of arts practice from more traditional forms to contemporary and conceptual practices. It contributes to creative, professional development or research activities, and the production and/or presentation of artistic works.

INDEPENDENT ARTISTS PROGRAM

– Criticism and Curatorial Practice

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Deadlines: March 15 and October 1

INTRODUCTION

Independent critics and curators serve as catalysts for informed interactions between artists, works of art and audiences. Through imaginative production, presentation, dissemination and discussion of artwork in all disciplines, they inspire fresh ways of thinking about and contextualizing contemporary art and arts practice. Independent curators and critics play a key role in developing audiences for new work by writing and organizing events, exhibitions, symposia and other online and onsite forums about the arts. Their training may include artistic practice in any discipline and academic studies in the arts and culture.

GRANT TYPE

Creative

Supports the creation or development of work in any art form, or the continuation of work in progress.

Production and Presentation

Supports the production, presentation and exhibition of new artistic works, and/or the remounting of existing works.

Professional Development

Supports opportunities that will develop and advance artistic practice through specialized study, instruction or training in a formal or informal setting.

Research

Supports independent research in the arts, research on new techniques or technologies and research related to new work.

An application may be moved to another Grant Type by the Arts Board or the jury panel if it is determined to be more relevant to the application.

APPLICANT CATEGORY

Professional Independent Critics or Curators have:

- Completed their basic training in the field
- Produced an independent body of curatorial work
- Made at least three public presentations of their work during the last three years
- Written at least three critical texts, articles or reviews on contemporary art or arts practice, published in a professional context and/or
- Hosted a peer-recognized website, blog, virtual museum or forum dedicated to curatorial or critical discourse on contemporary art in any discipline.

Emerging Professional Critics or Curators have:

- Created a modest independent body of work
- Attained local recognition for their contribution to the discipline through public presentation of their work
- Begun to publish critical essays, articles or reviews on contemporary art and arts practice in any discipline and
- Established a professional practice in the field following completion of basic training.

Established Professional Critics or Curators have: (continued...)

- Made a nationally or internationally recognized contribution to knowledge and thinking about contemporary art or arts practice through public presentation of their work OR have made a locally recognized contribution for many years,
- A significant body of published critical texts, essays, articles or reviews on contemporary arts and arts practice in any discipline, and
- Many years of professional curatorial or critical practice.

An application may be moved to another Applicant Category by the Arts Board or the jury panel.

GRANT AMOUNT

Maximum grants available are:

Grant Type	Established Artists	Emerging Artists
Creative	$17,000	$6,000
Professional Development	$ 7,500	$4,000
Research	$ 5,000	$2,000
Production and Presentation	$17,000

- The granting process is competitive and funds are limited. An application may not be funded or may not be funded for the full amount requested.
- No individual applicant may receive more than a total of $34,000 over a 4-year period from the Independent Artists Program.
- A grant recipient must meet all conditions for the release of the funds and claim their grant within 12 months after the date of the letter notifying them of the results of their application.
If the conditions are not met and the grant is not claimed within this 12-month period, the Arts Board reserves the right to rescind the grant.
- A grant recipient must begin the funded project no later than 12 months from the start date initially approved. If the project does not begin within this 12-month period, the Arts Board reserves the right to rescind the grant.
- A grant recipient must receive approval from the Arts Board to make major changes to a funded project including modifications to project dates and/or significant budget revisions. If a project is significantly changed without approval, the Arts Board reserves the right to rescind the grant.
- The Saskatchewan Arts Board is required to issue T4A forms for taxation purposes to individuals for amounts received over $500. (See Collaborations, pages 4-5, for information about T4A forms for collaborative projects.)

ELIGIBILITY

Eligible Applicants

Emerging or Established Critics or Curators (see pages 2-3), working independently or collaboratively, who:

- Are Canadian citizens or Permanent Residents of Canada
- Are residents of Saskatchewan who have lived and pursued their creative work and careers in the province for a minimum of one year prior to the date of making this grant application
- Have a permanent physical address in Saskatchewan and
- Live in Saskatchewan for at least six months in a year.

Applicants who meet the criteria for Saskatchewan residency as described above may be eligible to apply for Independent Artists Program funding while they are temporarily absent from the province for an arts education or artistic opportunity (e.g., artist in residence). The absence must be for no more than two years and not be recurring. The applicant must maintain their permanent physical address in Saskatchewan, must intend to return to the province at the end of the term and cannot receive funding from the jurisdiction of their temporary residence.

Proof of residency is not required as part of the application but must be available on request. If requested, applicants must be able to provide three or more documents that verify residency status. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, a valid Saskatchewan Health Services card, a valid Saskatchewan driver's license, evidence of income taxes paid in the previous year as a Saskatchewan resident and/or other documentation that verifies Saskatchewan residency. If sufficient documentation is not produced upon request, the applicant is ineligible.

Students who meet the eligibility requirements listed above and are enrolled in graduate level courses in an arts program are eligible to apply for Independent Artists Program funding if their proposed project is completely unrelated to their program of study and they will not receive credit for the work undertaken during the project term. This must be confirmed in a letter from their Department Head.

Ineligible Applicants

- Applicants who do not meet the criteria for Saskatchewan residency
- Undergraduate students enrolled full-time at an educational institution (full-time is defined as more than two courses)
- Applicants who have received the maximum allowable grant amount from the Independent Artists Program over a 4-year period
- Applicants who have outstanding reports for any previous grant received from the Saskatchewan Arts Board. In the case of collaborative projects, each artist who has completed an Appendix 2 declaration must be in good standing for the application to be eligible
- Applicants who are employed in curatorial positions at galleries supported through the Professional Arts Organisation Program and/or
- Presenters or agents applying on behalf of a critic or curator they present or represent.

Applicants are not eligible to submit more than one Independent Artists Program application per deadline.

Exception: Critics or curators applying independently and as members of one or more collaborations.

Ineligible Activities

- Activity undertaken prior to the grant deadline
- Academic symposia or conferences
- Commissioned work
- Work created primarily for commercial or academic rather than artistic purposes.

Ineligible Applications

- Applications that do not include all required information and components as listed in the Application Requirements Checklist (page 6), including balanced budgets
- Applications delivered, postmarked or sent by courier after the specified deadline
- Illegible, incomplete or unsigned applications
- Applications submitted by e-mail or fax.

COLLABORATIONS

Collaborative projects may involve both Emerging and Established Professional Critics or Curators. The majority must be Saskatchewan residents and meet the requirements for eligible applicants (page 3). One individual shall make the application on behalf of the collaborative team, serve as the contact and sign the Declaration in the Application Form. The individual who is the applicant also is responsible for ensuring all grant and reporting requirements are fulfilled.

If the application is successful, the grant is paid to the Name for Cheque Issue as listed on the Application Form, after all grant conditions have been met and required documents are approved.

- If the identified payee is the individual making the application, or another individual, the Saskatchewan Arts Board is required to issue a T4A form for taxation purposes to that individual for amounts received over $500.

Collaborations (continued...)

- If the identified payee is the name of the collective or group and it has the ability to receive payments under that name, the Saskatchewan Arts Board is not required to issue a T4A for taxation purposes.
- The Saskatchewan Arts Board cannot divide a grant and/or pay portions of a grant to each member of a collaborative team.

ADJUDICATION

Applicants are to consider the Adjudication Criteria when developing their applications.

For more information about the Saskatchewan Arts Board's adjudication process and how funds are allocated, visit our website at www.artsboard.sk.ca/adjudication.

An independent panel of jurors with appropriate knowledge and experience will assess applications through a competitive process based on the following:

Adjudication Criteria:

1. Artistic Merit:
 - The Applicant's résumé, past work and level of achievement relative to the identified Applicant Category (Emerging or Established Professional Critic or Curator)
 - The merit of the applicant's work as defined by practice in the art form and practice among the applicant's peers
 - The applicant's development of a distinct and personal body of work.
2. Merit of the Activity:
 - The project's relevance to the development of the applicant's artistic practice, body of work and career
 - The merit of the activity as defined by practice in the art form and among the applicant's peers and
 - Scope and feasibility of the project.
3. Planning
 - The applicant's ability and experience to complete the proposed project and
 - A clearly articulated, sound financial plan with realistic timeline and appropriate budget.

REPORTS

Grant recipients are required to submit a final report, including a financial report, no later than 30 days after the project end date.

RECOGNITION OF FUNDER

Grant recipients are required to acknowledge the Saskatchewan Arts Board's support wherever possible and appropriate. The Saskatchewan Arts Board will provide grant recipients with an acknowledgement statement and access to the Arts Board's logo.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

The personal and confidential information that is provided in an application is collected, used and disclosed in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act. This information is required to process the application. Personal and confidential information disclosed in the application will only be shared, as necessary, with employees of the Saskatchewan Arts Board and the jurors. If awarded a grant, the name of the recipient, community, project description and amount of the grant will be made known publicly. The Saskatchewan Arts Board will respond appropriately to any inquiries regarding the privacy policies and procedures, including requests to access the applicant's personal information.
