Dear _____,

Reference Chair

I am writing to tell you about a wonderful young woman who will be attending your college this fall as a [Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, etc.] and going through sorority recruitment. Her name is _____, but we all call her _____.

She would make an outstanding member in your chapter. Both her mother and sister are members of [Sorority Name]. _____ is a charming, enthusiastic, intelligent, happy, well-adjusted and witty young woman. She is very organized and well-liked by her peers. She was selected as an outstanding young woman from

High School

She has been a member of the tennis team for four years and plays the piano. _____ is also the editor of her high school yearbook. Other activities include participation in student government and co-chairing the dance marathon this year. _____ volunteers in her church nursery and at the Salvation Army shelter.

In the summer, she teaches tennis at a local camp. She is a member of the National Honor Society, the Quill and Scroll Society, and a National Merit Finalist. As you can guess, her scholastic achievements are outstanding with a _____ GPA. Her class ranking is _____ out of _____ students in her graduating class.

I have known _____ personally for most of her life, as she is a good friend of my daughter. I consider her part of my family.

Her parents, _____ and _____, are both active in the community and could support the financial obligations of being a member of a Greek organization. I cannot say enough positive things about her.

Please give _____ strong consideration, as I know other sororities will be looking at her as well. She would be a wonderful asset to [Sorority Name].

Sincerely,
