Funeral Directors who are publishing a notice in the newspaper*

How to schedule an Obituary

1. Select the newspaper or group from the list on the back page of this planner.
2. Follow the Writing Guidelines on the facing page. When selecting a photo make sure that the image is clear. You may also choose an inset symbol from the back page. There is no charge for the art however it does increase the notice cost by about 2 to 7 lines depending on the size of the symbol.
3. Select the dates the notice will publish. You may schedule the notice for any number of days however all of the daily newspapers offer a 3 consecutive day package for the price of 2 which can be a more economical option.
4. Notices must be received for publication by the following days and times*:

Mercury News and San Mateo County Times:

With photo: Mon.-Fri., 12 Noon - for following day; 12 Noon Fri. for Sun./Mon.

Without photo: Mon.-Fri., 3 P.M. for following day; 3 P.M. Fri. for Sun./Mon.

East Bay#1: Contra Costa Times, East County Times, West County Times, San Ramon Valley Times, Tri-Valley Times

With or without photo: Mon.-Fri. 12 Noon for the following day; 2 P.M. Fri. for Sun./Mon.

Marin Independent Journal: Mon.-Fri., 2 P.M. for following day; 2 P.M. Fri. for Sun./Mon.

Santa Cruz Sentinel: Mon.-Fri., 2 P.M. for following day; 2 P.M. Fri. for Sun./Mon.

Some Funeral Homes have extended times for entering Sunday and Monday notices if they are using Electronic Obits. Check availability with your funeral director.

5. Once you have completed the notice, you may place it through the funeral home or directly with the newspaper. There is cost savings in going through a funeral home and those using Electronic Obituaries have extended weekend cut-off times. If you opt to work directly with the newspaper email is the best method for submitting the notice. Photos must be received via email (JPG or PDF 150-300dpi) or in person. In all correspondence, make sure to include your contact information (name, phone number and address) and the newspaper or newspaper group desired.
6. Notices appear on-line for 1 year and include a guest book. Access these based on the newspaper: mercurynews.com; contracostatimes.com, insidebayarea.com (for East Bay #2), marinij.com or santacruzsentinel.com.
7. Once you have submitted the notice an Obituary Coordinator will contact you with cost information. All notices are charged on a per line per day basis.

Writing Guidelines

Make sure to present the notice in clear, readable language with no abbreviations. Divide it into paragraphs based on the numbered guidelines below:

1. The first line is the name of the deceased followed by the city where they resided (or former local city) – “Resident of”. This information is required.
2. Dates of birth and death are optional.
3. The text of the notice should include a short biography including milestones (marriage, children, career, military service), successes, special interests, and membership in organizations.
4. The list of survivors usually contains the names of spouse, children and grandchildren and may include their cities of residence. You may also want to include family members who passed away prior to the deceased.
5. Close with the date, time and location of all services – visitation, rosary, funeral, burial or gravesite service. Make sure to include the name and phone number of the mortuary so that you don't have to field calls for directions.
6. State requests for donations to charity at the end of the notice.
7. Make sure to spell check the notice and verify spelling of all family names.
8. If you desire a photo, please email it in JPG or PDF format as an attachment. See the back page for a selection of symbols.

The best option for publication is the 3-Day package - the notice runs for 3 consecutive days and is charged for only 2 days. Please consult with a Bay Area News Group Obituary Coordinator or your mortuary on newspaper options and rates.

Obituary Symbols

Symbols are available at the 2nd line of any obituary and are a nice way to highlight an important aspect of your loved one's life. These increase the size and final cost of the notice based on the space occupied by the symbol.
